DATA STORAGE

All personal data provided will be processed in compliance with the principles of lawfulness, correctness, relevance and proportionality, only with the methods, including computer and telematic methods, strictly necessary to pursue the purposes described above. Personal data will be kept for 6 years following the last contact with the interested party or until the request for cancellation by the same. In this case, the data related to the legitimate interest of the owner or necessary for the fulfillment of legal obligations may still be stored. It should be noted that the information systems used to manage the information collected are configured, from the outset, in such a way as to minimize the use of personal data.

RIGHTS OF THE INTERESTED PARTY

In his capacity as an interested party, he has the rights referred to in art. 15 ss and art. 77 GDPR, and precisely the rights of:

Obtain from the data controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him is being processed and, in this case, to obtain access to personal data and the following information: the purposes of the processing; the categories of personal data in question; the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular if they are recipients of third countries or international organizations; when possible, the retention period of the personal data provided or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine this period; if the data are not collected from the interested party, all available information on their origin; the existence of an automated decision-making process, including profiling, and, at least in such cases, significant information on the logic used, as well as the importance and expected consequences of such processing for the data subject.

Obtain from the data controller the correction of inaccurate personal data concerning him without undue delay. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the interested party has the right to obtain the integration of incomplete personal data, also by providing an additional declaration.

Obtain from the data controller information relating to personal data concerning him without undue delay, if one of the following reasons exists: a) the personal data are no longer necessary with respect to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed; b) the interested party revokes the consent on which the processing is based in accordance with Article 6, paragraph 1, letter a), or Article 9, paragraph 2, letter a), and if there is no other legal basis for the processing; c) the interested party opposes the processing pursuant to Article 21, paragraph 1, and there is no legitimate overriding reason to proceed with the processing, or opposes the processing pursuant to Article 21, paragraph 2; d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed; e) the personal data must be deleted to fulfill a legal obligation under the law of the Union or of the Member State to which the data controller is subject; Obtain from the data controller the limitation of the processing when one of the following hypotheses occurs: a) the data subject disputes the accuracy of the personal data, for the period necessary for the data controller to verify the accuracy of such personal data; b) the processing is unlawful and the interested party opposes the cancellation of personal data and requests instead that its use be limited; c) although the data controller no longer needs them for processing purposes, the personal data are necessary for the data subject to ascertain, exercise or defend a right in court; d) the interested party opposed the processing pursuant to Article 21, paragraph 1, pending verification of the possible prevalence of the legitimate reasons of the data controller with respect to those of the interested party.

Receive in a structured format, commonly used and readable by an automatic device, the personal data concerning him provided to a data controller and transmit such data to another data controller without impediments by the data controller to whom he provided them if the processing is carried out by digital means. In exercising their rights regarding data portability, the interested party has the right to obtain the direct transmission of personal data from one data controller to another, if technically feasible.

Oppose at any time, for reasons connected with your particular situation, to the processing of personal data concerning you pursuant to Article 6, paragraph 1, letters e) or f), including profiling on the basis of these provisions. If personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, the interested party has the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning him for these purposes, including profiling to the extent that it is connected to such marketing.

Right not to be subjected to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling , which produces legal effects concerning him or which significantly affects his person in a similar way.

Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority pursuant to art. 77.
